SCOTT COUNTY SAVINGS BANK.

RULES, REGULATIONS, AND CONDITIONS GOVERNING DEPOSITS.

1. All deposits made in this Bank, unless otherwise agreed upon in writing, will be held to have been made in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws and Articles of Incorporation of the Bank, and also of the provisions of Chapter sixty (60), Acts of the Fifteenth General Assembly of the State of Iowa, and said provisions shall be held to be the contract of deposit, or the agreement under which the deposit is made.
2. Deposits of sums of one dollar and upward will be received, and will draw interest at the rate prescribed by the Bank, from the first day of the succeeding month. Deposits made on or before the third day of any month will draw interest from the first day of that month.
3. On making the first deposit, the depositors will be required to subscribe their names to a signature book containing the By-Laws of the Bank, and rules, regulations, and conditions governing the receipt and payment of deposits; and they thereby signify their assent to the said By-Laws and to the said rules and regulations.
4. Deposits will be entered in the books of the bank, and also in a pass-book given to the depositor. If a depositor prefers to receive a certificate of deposit, the amount therein stated shall not draw interest unless so specified in the certificate.
5. On the first Monday in January and July, interest computed to the first day of January and July will be payable on all sums of money which shall have been on deposit at least one full calendar month, but no interest will be paid on fractional parts of a dollar, nor for fractional parts of a month.
6. Persons of either sex, whether married or single, or under age, may deposit money in this Bank under such conditions that no one else can draw it; or money may be deposited for the benefit of any other person, subject to such conditions as may be desired and agreed upon, in writing, by the Bank.
7. Money deposited shall only be drawn out by the depositor or some person duly authorized by him, but no person shall have the right to demand any part of the principal or interest of any deposits without producing the original book or certificate, so that such payments may be entered therein.

The Bank, however, reserves the right to deduct from any deposit the amount of such counter claims as it may have against the original depositor or the owner of the deposit book or certificate of deposit.

8. On the decease of any depositor, the amount standing to his credit shall be paid to his legal representatives; and if said amount shall be less than one hundred (100) dollars, it may be paid to said representative by the special order of the Board of Directors of the Bank without the expense of any probate or will, or letters of administration, but the Bank reserves the right in such cases to require a satisfactory guarantee that no further or other claim against such amount shall be made.

9. In case of the loss of depositor's pass book, immediate notice must be given to the Bank. The officers may be unable to identify every depositor, and the Bank, therefore, will not be responsible for the loss sustained when such notice has not been given, if the Bank shall have in good faith made whole or part payments to a person or persons presenting said book and demanding payments thereon. The Bank shall not be under any obligation to require the identification of parties presenting pass books or certificates and demanding the payment of the amounts therein stated, or of the interest thereon. In case of the asserted loss or theft of any deposit book or certificate, no payment of the deposits therein stated shall be made unless a satisfactory guarantee is given, securing the Bank from any claim, costs, or expense resulting from such payment.

10. Interest will be paid on deposits at such rates, and at such times, and for such periods as the Directors of the Bank may from time to time decide upon and give public notice thereof; and all notices in relation to deposits or depositors, published by order of the Board, or of its authorized officials, three days successively in at least two of the daily newspapers published in the city of Davenport, Iowa, (one of which said newspapers shall be in the German language), shall be deemed and taken as actual notice to each depositor.

11. The Bank shall be at liberty to close the account or to refuse to receive the deposits of any person or persons, and may return the whole or any part of any deposit at any time it may deem it expedient to do so, by giving to such depositor either a verbal notice thereof, or by a written notice addressed to such depositor and deposited in the post office in the city of Davenport; unless a different post office has been named or indicated by such depositor, in which case said notice shall be directed to him at such post office; and after the expiration of ten days from the time such notice was so given, such deposit shall cease to draw interest.

12. The Bank will be open daily (Sundays and legal holidays excepted), for business, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M., and on Saturdays and Mondays from 5 P. M. to 8 P. M., also.

Dr. SCOTT COUNTY SAVINGS BANK in Acct.

[illegible]

Dec 1893

the Scott County Savings Bank, is given the public to-day. It is a remarkable showing. The bank opened for business on the 1st day of December last---and in the eight months since the deposits aggregate more than a quarter of a million of dollars---$226,523.91 in exact figures. The number of depositors is 663, showing that the average of deposits to each person is less than $400.00. This would be considered an immense business for a savings bank in any other city in this state---or the west, either. In truth, it is unprecedented in savings bank history in the northwest.

DEPOSITS

FROM ONE DOLLAR AND UPWARDS RECEIVED FROM ANY ONE DEPOSITOR.

Interest at the rate of ~~Four (4)~~ Five (5) per cent

Will be paid for all full calendar months.

Money deposited on or before the third day of a month will draw interest from the first day thereof.

Depositors are requested to present Pass Books for computation of interest twice a year.

DRAWING MONEY.

No person can withdraw money without the book.

Depositors can withdraw money by sending an order, together with the book.
